WORD OF GOD SUNDAY

Today the Church celebrates the Word of God Sunday, a day set aside to renew our love for Sacred Scripture. The Bible is not just a book from the past, but the living Word of God, through which the Lord speaks to us today, guides our lives, and strengthens our faith.

As we listen to the readings at Mass, we are invited to open our hearts, just as the disciples did, allowing God's Word to shape our choices, bring hope, and lead us closer to Christ, who is the Word made flesh. May this celebration encourage us to read, pray with, and live the Word of God each day.
